

Here's How it Works

You invest $499 dollars, risk free in your own premium wellness product pack. The investment comes with over $630 worth of the most scientifically advanced technologies. Ready to change lives?

1. In Week One, ask yourself, "Who do I know that could benefit from products that support better health, more effective fat loss, or a more youthful quality of skin?" And from that group ask, "Who could use an extra $3200 in today's rough economic times?" Just pick two who are interested in this opportunity now.

2. In Week Two, help your two friends duplicate your effort by enrolling their two premium wellness consumers. You've now created a power team. When your first two friends earn their $200 direct bonuses you are eligible to earn immediate power and fast start bonuses of $1000.

3. In Week Three, help your two friends earn $1000 by completing their qualified power teams and you can earn a matching bonus on each, for a total of $2000. This can bring your immediate cash awards to $3200.

4. In Week Four, your two friends can earn their full $3200 when they help their two create their power team.

After your first four weeks you can also choose to qualify for additional monthly bonuses based on your ongoing personal and group product sales volumes. Whether your contacts choose to become wellness consumers or choose to also share this exciting program with others, their quality of life can be impacted forever. This model simply represents the most efficient way to maximize earnings. The purchase of a Premium Wellness Pack is optional and not required to become an associate. There are other ways to reach these milestones. Actual earnings depend on your individual efforts and skill, the customer base available to you, and the time devoted to your business. See Mannatech Career and Compensation plan for more details. These statements have not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration.
